

Infographic information for What's the Best Age to Claim Social Security.

Chart that displays the percentage of full retirement benefit by age.

At the age of 62, people get 70% of full retirement benefit at $1,200

At the age of 63, people get 75% of full retirement benefit at $1,350

At the age of 64, people get 80% of full retirement benefit at $1,440

At the age of 65, people get 85% of full retirement benefit at $1,561

At the age of 66, people get 90% of full retirement benefit at $1,679

At the age of 67, people get 100% of full retirement benefit at $1,800.

At the age of 68, people get 105% of full retirement benefit at $1,944

At the age of 69, people get 115% of full retirement benefit at $2,088

At the age of 71, people get 120% of full retirement benefit at $2,232